

Direct and Indirect Speech

Here is an example of DIRECT SPEECH:

She said, "You are a wonderful person."

Here is an example of INDIRECT SPEECH:

She said that you are a wonderful person.

- (1) Write a conversation between yourself and your mother on the subject of green dahi (include some direct questions and statements).
- (2) Write a conversation between your parents or grandparents on the subject of babies and moustaches (include some indirect questions and statements).
- (3) Write a conversation between yourself and an invisible dog (include some direct questions and statements).
- (4) Write a conversation between your teachers on the subject of you (include some indirect questions and statements).
- (5) Write a story full of conversation that contains this sentence somewhere in the middle of the story:
"Be very careful not to break these," she said.